Greeting from the President

Welcome to Chiang Rai! Our university is located in the northernmost spot of Thailand and established in 1973. Chiang Rai Rajabhat University (CRRU) was the first tertiary institution in Chiang Rai with an aim to produce qualified teachers for local community development. After 4 decades, the university has transcended through time with dynamic development, and a vision and mission that is still shining brightly in focusing on local community development, and providing higher education opportunity for the people in this region throughout ASEAN. We are the “University of Learning for Local Development and Internationalization”.

Today, ASEAN and globalization trends have created positive advantages for the university by which we proactively embrace and welcome the new challengers for more internationalization activities, such as expanding collaborative networks with international universities, welcoming more international students, implementing various types of exchange programs for students and faculty members. Therefore, we are at the forefront for meeting the needs both locals and internationals.

CRRU Intro

Chiang Rai Rajabhat University
"University of Learning"

Chiang Rai Rajabhat University (CRRU) is the first tertiary education institution in Chiang Rai Province for producing teacher graduates and educational specialists with the aim of serving the local communities for sustainable development. The institution was established on 29 September 1973 as a “Teacher Training College”, later as “Rajabhat Institute”, and finally upgraded to “Chiang Rai Rajabhat University” in 2004. For more than 40 years, the university has served as the hub in producing qualified graduates for serving the needs of the local community. Today, the university’s vision is still shining brightly and functioning as the “University of Learning” where people from local communities can have their education opportunity in various disciplines. The university also serves higher education needs for the people in ASEAN countries by conducting research and providing academic services in the fields of education, economics, social sciences, and cultural studies.

CRRU covers an area of 623 acres (1,575 rai). The main campus covers 376 acres (951 rai) plus 247 acres (624 rai) of the adjacent Princess Mother’s Park overlooking two breathtaking lakes. The university is the home for approximately 20,000 full time students.
